

Religious Education– How do we care for others and the world and why does it matter?

The Good Samaritan (Christianity)

The Good Samaritan is a Bible story told by Jesus. It tells us to be kind to others, regardless of who they are.

One day a Jewish man went for a walk. Along the way, two bandits stole his belongings and clothes, beat him up and left him by the side of the road.

A priest and a Levite walked past him and both of these people ignored the dying man.

A Samaritan walked along the road and saw the dying man. Samaritans and Jews did not usually get along at the time but the Samaritan helped the man. He gave him the cloak from his back, put the man on his donkey and took him to an inn. He bought expensive supplies to heal the man and paid for him to stay at the inn while he got better.

Key Religious Symbols

Christianity -
Cross

Judaism -
Star of David

Key Religious Text

The Bible

The Torah

Christianity	Judaism
A religion based on the teachings of Jesus Christ. The belief that Jesus is the Son of God and he died to forgive human sin. Followers are called Christians.	A religion with one God, who revealed Himself through prophets such as Abraham and Moses. The world's oldest religion . Followers are called Jewish people.

We are all special and unique.

Christianity and Judaism are two religions that care and value others. Their main focus is believing in God.